

2021 CBAA Conference Scholarships Terms & Conditions

1. CBAA will cover the cost of conference registration, which includes a ticket to the Welcome BBQ, CBAA Awards Gala Dinner and accommodation at the conference venue to the value of $1,200:
2. Conference registration includes access to the Conference workshops and panels as listed on the Program, and morning and afternoon tea and lunch during the Conference.
3. Accommodation is booked by the CBAA at a venue close to the conference venue for three nights, checking in Thursday, 2 December and checking out Sunday, 5 December. Accommodation includes breakfast daily. Any additional nights must be booked and paid for by scholarship recipients;
4. Scholarship recipients will not receive the value of the scholarship in cash;
5. Scholarship recipients are responsible for costs above and beyond the $1,200 scholarship, which may include flights and transfers, extra accommodation costs (eg. Mini Bar or additional nights), meals outside of conference catering, and incidentals;
6. If the scholarship recipient is unable to attend for any reason, recipients must inform the CBAA with at least 21 days' notice prior to the conference to enable the scholarship to be reallocated. The original recipient will be responsible for covering any costs associated with cancellation, such as flights;
7. Scholarships are limited to 10 people. Preference will be given to applicants who are in leadership positions at stations and meet at least one of the following criteria: are under the age of 26, or from an underrepresented gender, or from a station in a regional, rural or remote location, or are representing a station that was not at the 2019 face-to-face CBAA Conference, and whose attendance will provide benefit to the home station.
8. Scholarship recipients must be over the age of 18 to attend the conference and associated events.
9. Scholarships are open to anyone who:
 - a. Is a board/committee member of, employed by or a volunteer of a community radio station that: (a) Holds a temporary or permanent community radio licence, and (b) Is a member of the CBAA;
 - b. Is an Australian citizen, permanent resident or holder of a humanitarian visa;
 - c. Has the approval of their station to attend the conference.
10. Scholarships are limited to only one recipient per station;
11. Scholarship recipients may be asked to submit a testimonial following the conference for future promotional and funding purposes.