HOMELESS IN HOTELS

3CR

A 3-part radio series capturing homelessness during COVID-19 in Naarm-Melbourne

Episodes: 3 part series
Duration: 3 x 55'50

Tags: Health, Limited Series

Homeless in Hotels captures the voices of Melbourne's homeless community who went from a life on the street to life in hotels during the city's curfew and rolling lockdowns. The series looks at an improvised response to homelessness by a government that was unprepared and lacking commitment to housing as a human right. It asks how people managed their mental health, drug use and access to services and how support workers adapted to the shifting ground of the pandemic.

Notes/sponsorship: N/A

RED ROOM POETRY

Looking at the future benefits of Active Transport

Episodes: 8
Duration: 27:50

Tags: Limited Series

If a poem was a room you could walk into, whose voices might you hear? Red Room Poetry grew from a community radio show focused on the voices of Australian poets. Line Break explores Red Room Poetry's audio archives, and is hosted by the Red Room Poetry team, Nicole Smede, Lorin Reid, David Stavanger and Izzy Roberts-Orr. Each episode explores a particular theme, style or form.

Tags: Nostalgia; Pop

45RPM honours the music of the 45 era: the 60s, 70s and 80s. This weekly two-hour program contains music (original radio mixes), witty banter, and entertaining reports.

More than a trip down memory lane, 45RPM sheds new light on old windows, re-contextualising the music boomers grew up listening to.

Notes/sponsorship: Due to news and gig guide information, CRN recommends airing the program within a week of file distribution.

Think you have the perfect program for the CRN?

The Community Radio Network is always on the look out for more programs, as we aim to showcase the very best of the community radio sector, whilst offering a diverse range of programming for all stations on our network.

Whether it's an avant-garde music program, a political talks program, a cooking, fishing, or soccer show, we'd love to hear from you!

You can contact us anytime to discuss potential program applications by sending us an email at crn@cbaa.org.au
