Your intro:

Today we're kicking off a new series, which delves beneath the surface of hit songs we've come to love, for one particular reason: they're songs that were made famous later on, by people other than the original artists.

It's called Uncovered, and we're starting off with no less than Mambo Number 5. This one hit wonder from Lou Bega topped almost every chart in Europe and stayed at number 1 in France for 10 weeks. But Mambo Number 5 is not an original.

Audio cue in – Starts on music: 'You Don't Know Me' by Ben Folds and Regina Spektor

Audio cue out – "...for the Community Radio Network".

Your back-announce:

Jof for will be back for another Uncovered session at the same time next [insert broadcast day]

Additional information:

Uncovered is brought to you as part of CRN Segments Round Five, with financial assistance from the Community Broadcasting Foundation.
