

Narratives National

There is something intriguing about hearing an author read their own words. Connect your listeners with the latest and best Australian writing with a fresh half-hour literature program.

Each edition of Narratives National features at least two author interviews and reads, all recorded face to face. Presented by the award-winning Karena Wynn-Moylan of Bay FM, the program is made possible for a national audience through the financial assistance of the Community Broadcasting Foundation.

When does this air?

The weekly edition of Narratives National (27'50) will be available through the Community Radio Network program service on Mondays 19:04 AEST/AEDT from 2 October 2017, and is available for DDN capture or as a file download link.

For more information contact staff at the Community Radio Network on 02 9310 2999, email crn@cbaa.org.au or visit <http://www.cbaa.org.au/crn>.

Coming up in October 2017

2 October 2017 - Hannah Kent and Robert Drewe

An Irish connection

Hannah Kent will read from 'The Good People' and talk about the persistence of Fairy Lore in Ireland, Robert Drewe takes on the drama and comedy of family reunions in 'Whipbird'. music tracks by Cathie O'Sullivan and Shane Howard.

9 October 2017 - Graeme Simsion and Anne Buist

Two Steps Forward-Romantic comedy

Graeme Simsion, author of the outrageously popular 'Rosie Project' has written a book with his Author wife Anne Buist which is a rom-com centred around two people walking the Camino trail from France to Spain. A lively interview with the husband and wife writing team is followed by reads from both of them . Music track: Lucinda Peters 'River of Remembrance'.Book was launched on October 2.

16 October 2017 - Richard Roxburgh and Tristan Bancks

Children's lit by two well known actors

Richard Roxburgh, star of film, TV and stage has written his first, very funny children's book - 'Artie and the Grime Wave'. Tristan Bancks, formerly from the series Home and Away, reads from the second in his very popular series of 'My Life' books - 'My Life and other stuff I made up'. Both actors love acting out the text and having fun. Music from Tin Pan Orange- Round the Twist.

23 October 2017 - L.A Larkin and Michael Robotham

Thrillers with a twist

These two authors write the sort of book you need on a plane, you want to keep turning the pages as they keep you racing ahead to read what happens next.

L.A Larkin writes thrillers with an environmental slant, while Michael Robotham likes psychological thrillers. Music by Abbie Cardwell.

30 October 2017 - Rajith Savanadasa and Sohila Zanjani

New land, new voices

Two authors who have now lived in Australia for some years after migrating from Sri Lanka and Iran. Rajith's story 'Ruins' is a novel about three generations of one family, and 'Scattered Pearls' by Sohila is a memoir. Music is Alunud by CODA.

COMMUNITY
BROADCASTING
ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRALIA

COMMUNITY
RADIO
NETWORK